I have the Croney Genealogy available on 3 computer disks. The family group sheets are like the ones in this newsletter. The program is all IBM compatible. If you want a copy please let me know. I will be doing the Rawlins family next. If you want to receive this newsletter let me know. I would appreciate all FGS data on Murray Davis Barrus and his third wife. I recently visited Great Grandmother Else Pedersen Chirstensen Croney Knowles' grave in Salmon. She is buried to the side of John James Knowles. I also found Sabra's grave and their stones are all in good condition. To the side of Grandmother's grave is Cora's. Her stone is really about ruined. Maybe someday we could gather enough money to replace it. I will check out the cost of a new simple stone. Let me know what you think. I also searched the Minkcreek area for Grandfather Nels Peter Olsson Croney's grave with no luck. Note: Cora was born Vanada Cora Stafford in Independence, Tangipahoa, Louisiana. She died 3 Dec 1938 in Salmon, Idaho. I recently wrote to her son in Nevada but received no reply. Her father Fielden Stafford, mother Frances Albin
